

JONES, THE JEWELER & OPTICIAN, desires to thank the many friends and customers for their liberal patronage, and wishes to inform the public that he will continue to carry a high grade of goods at the lowest possible prices.

Remember the place—sign of the Big Watch—when you want anything in the Jewelry or Musical line, either small or large. Watch Inspector for the C. R. I. & P. and the E. P. S. W.
CORNER SECOND AND CENTER STREETS

Invitations have been sent out for a Grand Masquerade Ball at the Skating Rink, on Jan. 1. Two prizes will be given, one for the best dressed lady and one for the best sustained character—gentleman.

A new addition has been put on the market by Wright and Mateson out south of town, known as Dudley Heights. Mr. Wright states that they are selling lots right along in spite of hard times. This is a very pretty addition and desirable property.
